William Thomas, the wealthy owner of the Milton Flour Mills, committed suicide Monday morning. No cause was assigned for the deed and none can be conjectured.

Simmons, the safe cracker of Prestonsburg, attempted to commit suicide in his cell at that place by cutting his throat with the small blade of a pen knife fastened in the end of a stick. He was caught in the act by the jailor who took the weapon from him. He succeeded in cutting several gashes in his throat. Since then he has been playing insane, and created great excitement in the court room. He has not eaten a morsel for several days. He is from Colorado and his people are among the most respected of their town and have wealth.

An Old Adage Reads:

"There is a place for everything" Now for everything to be in its place. The Louisville Dispatch should be in the home of every Democrat in the South. The Dispatch is the people's paper, owned by the people and read by the people. The Dispatch is the only Democratic paper published in Louisville. It stands squarely on the Chicago platform. It is not only in a flourishing condition after eighteen months battling against adverse circumstances, but is to-day the best medium in the South. And its motto—if you see it in the Dispatch it's so; if it's so it is always in the Dispatch, has been fully verified during the American-Spanish war, during which the superiority of its news service has been daily apparent.

The Dispatch news service is furnished by the New York Sun, the Chicago Inter-Ocean, the Northern Press Association and the Leslie Syndicate with an active salaried correspondent in every important city in the world, besides its own staff of over 800 correspondents in Kentucky, Tennessee and Indiana. Get the Dispatch, it gives the news, and tells the truth about it.

The Dispatch is Kentucky's greatest paper. You should be a reader. For the next few weeks we will club with the Weekly Dispatch at the extremely low price of 75 cts.

It has cost Spain nearly 4,000,000 to get whipped by Uncle Sam, to say nothing about the loss of her fleet and colonies.

Hon. W. B. Smith, of Richmond, has announced his candidacy for the Governorship. Mr. Smith, it will be remembered, was the only successful Bryan elector in this State in 1896.

Judge Barr has divided Kentucky into thirty bankruptcy referee districts and a referee will be named for each. This, the 24th district, is composed of Estill, Clark and Madison counties.

No man ever accomplished anything by whining and finding fault with his competitor and all the world in general. Remember you can soon whine yourself into the contempt of your fellowmen. There was never a truer saying than the old one, "Laugh and the world laughs with you, weep and you weep alone."

There is a great deal of talk among candidates about the office seeking (them) the man, and it has been our experience that when the office seeks a man in these latter days, it finds him with his consent, ready and his speech of acceptance prepared and in the hands of the "devil" and has the paper rushed out, for which the editor seldom gets any pay. Still the world goes on.

If you expect to conquer in the battle of today you'll have to blow your trumpet in a firm and steady way. If you toot your little whistle and lay aside your horn, there's not a soul will know such a soul was ever born.

The man that owns his acres, is the man that plows all day, and the man that keeps humping is the man that's here to stay. But the man that advertises with a sort of sudden jerk, is the man who blames the printer because it didn't work. The man who gets the business uses brainy printers ink, not a clatter or a splutter, but an ad that makes you think; and he plans his advertisements as he plans a well built stock, and the future of his business is as solid as a rock.

Killed Himself through Fear of Arrest.

Alex Daudson, a well-to-do farmer, fearing of being arrested by government officers for operating a moonshine still, shot and killed himself on Paint creek, Johnson county. He was led to believe that some one was running a moonshine still on his place and was told that Uncle Sam's agents were after him, this caused him to commit the rash act.

Coming Debate.

Arrangements have been made for a joint debate between Rev. F. Grider, of the M. E. church, and Rev. H. L. McMurry, of the Missionary Baptist church to be held at Scafford Cane church, in Roekeastle county, beginning Tuesday, October 18, and continuing five days. The propositions made are as follows:

"Sprinkling Is A Bible Mode Of Baptism." F. Grider, affirms; H. L. McMurry, denies.

"The Congregations known As Missionary Baptist Churches Are The Only True Churches Of God On Earth." H. L. McMurry affirms, F. Grider denies.

This debate will be conducted on Christian and high literary lines. The same rules used in the Campbell-Rice debate at Lexington several years ago, will prevail. Rev. G. W. Young, of this city, has been selected by Mr. Grider, as his moderator and has accepted.—Richmond Pantagraph.

A number of Daviess county farmers are somewhat alarmed about wheat that is up on account of the grasshoppers, which are reported in greater abundance than were ever before known.

The Clark County Circuit Court convened at Winchester Tuesday for a four weeks' term, with nearly 500 cases on the docket. The most important criminal case is that against Daisy Rankin, colored, charged with cutting another negro's throat.

Business is not a lottery, it is a simple process of demand and supply. Supplies in a thousand lines are demanded continually. If one man does not answer these demands another one will. It is the man who insists that he has these supplies who will be heard. If his stock answers his own descriptions of it, and if it is within hailing distance of what is demanded, the bargain is easily made, and that is mercantile business.—Exchange.

Killed by Train at Lexington. E. C. Peo, a private in an Iowa regiment was run over by an L. & E. train at Camp Hamilton, Lexington, and killed. The killing was wholly accidental.

Money often wins the first battle, but seldom the second.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Iron Mound.

Thos. West, of Miller's Creek, was the guest of T. E. Tipton last Sunday.

We had quite a refreshing rain this week which was badly needed in this locality.

Dr. C. Marcum, one of Miller's Creek's best practitioners, was visiting the families of T. E. Tipton and J. H. Thomas the first of the week.

A. G. Powell, of Miller's Creek, was in this locality looking for a situation the latter part of last week. Mr. Powell is an enterprising farmer, a good citizen and is a man of whom any neighborhood should feel proud.

Ye correspondent saw in a recent issue of the Times a piece in regard to Edward W. Hawkins, who was hung in this county May 29, 1857, which was certainly a mistake in regard to the gallows which was claimed to be 6 or 7 miles from Irvine. It is only 1½ miles from Irvine near the pike. Hawkins at the time he did the killing, of which the article speaks, was not riding behind Land, but was riding Arvine's horse, and Arvine was walking in front of him. Hawkins grappled with Land, who was riding by his side, and obtained his pistol and shot Arvine, then Hawkins and Land went from their horses to the ground, and after Land had run on his "all fours" some 20 or 30 steps, and looked up at Hawkins and cried "don't shoot me, Ed!" Hawkins fired and hit him above the eye.

The writer has the above from persons who were particular friends and associates of the persons to whom Hawkins made his confession.

LAST WEEK.

Corn is ripe and the boys will have to quit playing knox and go to work or feed their stock on snow balls this winter.

Hons. Leonard A. West and Chas. W. Miller of the Irvine bar, attended the Justice's court at this place the 15th inst.

T. E. Tipton, the enterprising merchant at this place, visited his father's family, near Judyville, Montgomery county several days last week.

Deputy Sheriff C. T. Grinstead and Assessor Alex Hamilton have recently been in this neck o' the woods collecting taxes for 1898 and assessing property for 1899.

'Squire John Henderson held his regular court the 15th, and the boys had a fine time playing knuck, eating watermelons and accusing each other of swearing d—m lies.

Ye correspondent never visits a magistrate's court but what he thinks of the Justice who said there was not a man on earth that could hold a court on Bear creek with swearing. I. M. D.

Govenor Bradley's call for a fund to present a silver service to the battleship Kentucky has resulted in only $196 subscribed.

Mr. A. E. Sams, wife and little daughter, Miss Jodella, left this place Tuesday morning for their home at Enid, Okla.

Wells are beginning to fail and unless we have more rain soon there will be several dry wells throughout this neighborhood and stock water will be getting scarce in places.

J. W. McKinney, of Levee, was in the burg Saturday. Willmot had fine spirits and says both he and Mrs. McKinney are delighted with their new home.

In writing about camp life at Anniston, Ala., a Kentucky soldier boy in speaking of the heat says: "The sun scorches us, but the ground is so poor you can't raise an umbrella on it."

The great trouble with the majority of men who bet on sure things is that they always bet the wrong way.

Monday night a very hard rain fell on the head of Red river, but none fell at this place, and but little at Clay City. Wednesday morning the river was several feet past fording, yet there had been no rain since Monday night. It seemed very odd for such a tide to be in the river without first having some rain.

J. B. Embry purchased 267 head of export cattle in this section last week. They averaged 1450 pounds and cost from $4.50 to $4.75. Mrs. Laura Williams has sold to James Thompson, of Bourbon county, 24 head of feeders at 40. They averaged 1025 pounds.—Mt. Sterling Gazette.

Our little boy was afflicted with rheumatism in his knees; and at times unable to put his foot to the floor. We tried in vain, everything we could hear of that we thought would help him. We almost gave up in despair, when some one advised us to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. We did so, and the first bottle gave him much relief that we got a second one, and, to our surprise, it cured him sound and well.—J. T. Bays, Pastor Christian Church, Neodesha, Kan. For sale by J. W. Dawson & Bro.

J. Riley McIntosh, who for the past three weeks has been visiting relatives on Caloway's creek, left for his home at Wickenburg, Ariz. yesterday.

The largest newspaper we ever saw has just reached our table. It is an 8-column quarto, published at Mt. Pleasant, Mich., a town of 3,000 inhabitants. Notwithstanding its enormous size, the paper is very neatly printed.

Three Doctors in Consultation.
From Benjamin Franklin.

"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i.e., Theory) says is best is to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. The office never has to seek the man on pay day.

Poor indeed is the minister whose voice fills the church and empties the pews, says an exchange. This is not altogether the way of it at this place. Very able ministers often fail to draw a crowd large enough to sing a song without his assistance, yet the woods with music ring.

Dr. Valentine H. Hobson, of Madison county, who recently announced himself a candidate for the Legislature, has, after reconsidering the matter, withdrawn. It seems that it took Mr. Hobson but a short time to learn that "politics is hell."

Over at Somerset a colored boy bought a slate, pencil, tablet, ink and pen and started off to school for the first time. In a short time he returned to the druggist from whom he bought his outfit and demanded another pen point, saying the first one he got was split.

J. H. Thomas happened to the misfortune of being in a run-away scrap Tuesday evening. He had been to the station with a load of ties and was coming down the Plum creek hill on his return, the king bolt was jolted from the wagon which let the hind carriage of the wagon run up, pushing the coupling pole into the team which caused it to scare and run. Mr. Thomas escaped without serious injury, but one of his four horses was badly hurt.

How to Prevent Croup.

We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always prevents the attack. It is a household necessity in this county and no matter what else we run out of, it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sold here than of all other cough medicines combined.

Three soldiers went out at our lands behest to fight for the girls their hearts loved best; and over the heart as a regular fixture each fellow carried his dear girl's picture. "I would stake my soul," said one man at night, "my love is as true as angels bright." "And mine," said the second "has sworn by all, she'll die a nun if I chance to fall." "And mine," cried the third, as he took a part, now stays at home with a broken heart." Then all three of them swore they were pearls of pearls and brought out the pictures of these true girls. What made them swear as they turned away, what made them think it was a cold, cold day? alack and alas 'twas a burning shame, the dear girl's pictures were all the same.

OCTOBER.

The harvest is past and the summer is ended. The wheat is all sold and the money spended. The corn in the field, it ripens and tustles, while the jaded old farmer gets up and hustles. The colts are all weaned and they soon learn to eat, and the farmer commences to drill in his wheat, the calves in the orchard stand sadly and blear, but because they are weaned there is more milk in the cellar. The victims of hay fever shiffle and sneeze, while the tumble weed rides on the October breeze, the golden rod flings its gray banner aloft, and the big Bartlett pears begin to feel soft. The wife in the kitchen is blinded with sweat, and she cans all the fruit she can possibly get, when she's used all the cans her husband will buy, she fills the no-handled jugs on the sly! When a woman once starts on a fruit jamboree, she's sure to can up all the fruit she can see.

Winchester Court.

From 2,000 to 2,500 cattle were on the market, all plain. An easier feeling prevailed and prices in some cases were a little lower than last court day. While there was quite a demand, sellers were forced to make concessions and many were left unsold. The highest price—$4.35—was obtained for some plain cattle, wt. 1,300 pounds. Steers, 700 to 800 pounds, 3½ to 3¾c; lighter one 3 to 3½c; a fat bull sold for 3½.

Among the sales were the following: Dillard Hunter bought of Phenice Watts some 600-lb yearling steers for $21 each and of J. H. Campbell, ten wt. 700 pounds, at $24.50 each.

Irvine Hays sold some 450-heifers at $3.60.

W. T. Mockabee sold eight yearlings, wt. 550 lbs. at $23 each.

Mr. Lutes sold 38 heifers, wt. 700 lbs., at 3½c.

David Prewitt bought 24 steers, wt. about 650 lbs., at $23.60 each and 16 weighing 500 lbs., at $16 each.

A lot of 24 yearlings were sold publicly for $23 each.

Robt. McKinney bought 20 plain steers, wt. 650 lbs., at $19.25 each.

Twenty-five Jersey calves were sold at $7 each by Sharp & Tuggee. Brock & Railback sold some good plain feeders, wt. 1,000 lbs., at 4c.

Some fat cows brought 3 cts.

Mr. Conner, of Pilot View, sold a lot of 600-lb. heifers at 3½c. Sharp & Tuggee sold 38 steers, wt. 824 lbs., at 3½c, and 25 weighing 880 lbs., at the same price.

Brock & Railback sold 10 exporters at 4½ cts.

Shelby Jett sold to Robt. Engle 20 steers, weight 1300 lbs., at $4.35.

Mr. Hutchcraft, of Paris, bought a lot of heifers at 3½ to 3½ cts.

Geo. Thomson, of Bourbon, bought a lot of 850-lb. steers at $3.90, and some 700-lb heifers at 3½ cts.

Hays & Owen sold some 1000-lb. feeders at 3½ cts.

There was a strong demand for mule colts and many were sold. Common mules brought from $18 to $30. Good ones from $40 to $55. Very few were sold between $30 and $40.—Winchester Democrat.

Man's Life.

Man's life, says an exchange, is full of crosses and temptations. He comes into this world without his consent and goes out against his will, and the trip between the two eternities is one of the features of the trip. When he is little the girls kiss him. If he raises a large family he is called a poor man, but if he raises a check he is a thief and a fraud and is shunned like a Chinaman with the itch; if he is a poor man he is a bad manager, if he is rich he is dishonest; if he is in politics it is for pie; if he is not in politics you can't tell where to place him and he is no good to his country; if he does an act of charity it's for policy, if he won't give to charity he is stingy and lives only for himself; if he dies young there was a great future in store for him. If he had lived to a great age he had missed his calling. He is introduced to the world by a doctor, and the next world by the same process. Verily the road is rough but men like to travel it.

Wants to Vote Once More.

Col. Joseph Henry, of Vanceburg, a great-grandson of Patrick Henry, who was at one time last week thought to be dying, has rallied and has, his doctor says, passed the danger line. This remarkable old genius of 85 years says he began to revive when a friend of his called in to see him and pleaded with him not to die until after the election of a Democratic Congressman. The old man vows he will live to cast one more Jacksonian vote, if he has to go to the polls on a stretcher.

The population of Dawson City as given by good authority is 16,000 and 12,999 are dead broke.

They banish pain and prolong life.
